ICHIRO ABE

Ministry of Economy, Trade and Industry, Japan;
Japan External Trade Organization, New Delhi

ICHIRO ABE is Special Advisor to the Ministry of Economy, Trade and Industry (METI), Government of Japan, for South Asia and Director of the New Delhi office of Japan External Trade Organization (JETRO). He has been an expert of industrial, trade, and energy policy and is currently engaged in trade and investment promotion between Japan and South Asia, including India. Prior to being assigned to his current position, Mr. Abe held a variety of positions in METI, including as a member of the Policy Planning Committee, where he coordinated the entire METI policy and managed organizational issues; Deputy Director of the Macroeconomic Division, where he established a framework of growth and fiscal policy directing the structure of the national budget; and Deputy Director of the FTA Division, where he negotiated and concluded free trade agreements between Japan and Southeast Asian countries.

AMIEE ADASCZIK ALOI

Pharmaceutical Research and Manufacturers of America

AMIEE ADASCZIK ALOI is Associate Vice President for International Affairs at the Pharmaceutical Research and Manufacturers of America (PhRMA). In this capacity, she is responsible for coordinating the association's advocacy and stakeholder outreach activities in India. Previously, she worked as Director of Policy at PhRMA, in which role she promoted strategies demonstrating the value of innovative medicines across the U.S. healthcare system.

Prior to joining PhRMA, Ms. Aloi worked at Avalere Health, a leading healthcare advisory company dedicated to business strategy and public policy. In that role, she provided research and analysis on coverage, reimbursement, and policy issues facing pharmaceutical, medical device, and biotechnology companies. She has also provided research assistance at the Institute of Medicine in Washington, D.C. Ms. Aloi received her undergraduate degree from Georgetown University and a master's in Public Health from Yale University.

MARK BRUNNER

Office of Senator Mark Warner (D-VA);
Senate India Caucus

MARK BRUNNER is the Senior Adviser to Senator Mark Warner (D-VA), co-chair of the Senate India Caucus. In this position, he is the senator's principal adviser on defense, foreign policy, and energy issues. Before his work for Senator Warner, Mr. Brunner served as a congressional appropriations liaison for the U.S. Navy, where he was the Secretary of the Navy's principal liaison to the appropriations committees in the House and Senate for all naval aviation issues. He has also worked for the former chairman of the Senate Armed Services Committee, Senator John Warner (R-VA). He served as the senator's military legislative assistant and speechwriter, providing analysis and formulating legislative policy on a wide range of national security and foreign policy issues.

Mr. Brunner also served in a diplomatic posting abroad as the defense policy adviser to the United States Mission to the European Union (EU), working on a variety of U.S.–EU foreign policy and defense issues and conducting public diplomacy with U.S. and European public- and private-sector interests. Before his time abroad, he was a career Navy pilot who deployed to theater multiple times. Mr. Brunner has worked in more than 50 countries during his military, diplomatic, and congressional service. He is the recipient of the Navy's Superior Public Service Award.
