Governor Jon Huntsman and the Honorable Dennis Blair to Launch a Report on the Theft of American Intellectual Property

WASHINGTON, D.C. | American companies are suffering the loss of hundreds of billions of dollars a year due to intellectual property theft by foreign entities. This loss has tremendous implications for the future competitive, strategic, and economic outlook of the United States.

For this purpose, the Commission on the Theft of American Intellectual Property (the IP Commission) was established to assess the scale and scope of the loss and provide robust policy recommendations to the Administration and Congress.

Former U.S. Ambassador to China and former Governor Jon Huntsman and former U.S. Director of National Intelligence Dennis Blair will present key findings and policy recommendations from the IP Commission Report at the National Press Club on May 22. Copies of the Report will be available.

Commission Members:

Gov. Jon Huntsman, former Governor of the State of Utah and U.S. Ambassador to China. Co-chair

Hon. Dennis Blair (Admiral, U.S. Navy, retired), former Director of National Intelligence and Commander of U.S. Pacific Command. Co-chair

Dr. Craig Barrett, former Chairman and CEO of Intel.
